5. President Bill Anderson brought up the rule "Foul Snooker". The rule states you must be able to hit more than fifty percent of the ball not see fifty percent. After discussion and demonstration it was decided for the remainder of the season to leave the markers to define what is or not a foul.
6. A letter will be submitted by the Secretary Jim Bannister for the 1984 Annual General Meeting to amend the rule book that you must be able to see more than fifty percent of the ball, also a player must ask the marker if it is a foul snooker. If it is he must inform the marker the ball he intends to play.

Discussion was held regarding the people that come to the Annual Presentation Balls without tickets which makes it impossible for the caterers to do their job effectively. It makes it hard all round on the members. It was moved by Laurie Driscoll that we appoint a Ticket Secretary responsible for ticket sales, money collection and a system where we can reduce the chance of us being ripped off again by un-invited guests. Howard Stephens was asked if he would take on this position. He accepted and the motion was carried.

- Attendance: Treasurer Peter Goddard, President William Anderson, Secretary Jim Bannister and Howard Stephens.
- Apologies: Neville Brady.
- Business:
 1. It was evident that we are having trouble selling tickets for the Annual Presentation Ball. A few teams saved the day selling more than expected. The majority had poor ticket sales. Some sold no tickets at all and in fact are not attending (Royal Exchange Hotel). The Annual Presentation Ball was discussed in depth by the Executive as to some means to increase numbers in the future or find other alternatives. It was decided there are no acceptable alternatives and that an Annual Presentation Ball is still the best form of social entertainment.

Question: How do we ensure we have full participation and a majority of attendance?
Answer: It was decided the time lapse between the Grand Final and the Annual Presentation Ball was too big a margin. Executive decided that all future Presentation Balls are to be held on the second Friday after the Grand final. And all monies must be collected and paid by the grand final night.
- Closing:

Meeting closed at 9.45pm.
